

Dear Colleagues,

It is a great pleasure and honor indeed for me to present this issue of Vidarbha Journal of Internal Medicine. At the outset I express my gratitude and thanks to Dr. Ramesh Mundle, Chairman , API, Vidarbha Chapter for trusting me to shoulder the responsibility of this prestigious journal.

It's beyond the words to express my sincere thanks to the members of editorial board for giving me tire less support without which it would not have been possible for me to release this issue. I express my gratitude to guest editor Vikas Bisne for his contribution to this issue. This issue highlights diastolic dysfunction/HFNEF, review by Dr. Prashant Jagtap and Editorial by Dr. Vikas Bisne.

Good number of original papers on common topics with newer insight are included. Common topics of day to day practice are extensively reviewed.

Hope you will enjoy reading this issue.
